VOL. V. NO. 144.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

QUEEN OF SONG'S RACE.

W. J. Smith has a sweet bit of horseflesh in his Esher—Sonata filly Queen of Song. She was giving away a lot of weight to good horses in the fifth race at Hawthorne yesterday, but won and won in the gamest manner.

This filly has started three times on local tracks this season and each time she has been returned the winner. Her first start was at Harlem, June 7. In this race she met a lot of good sprinters including flora Louise, Hugh Penny, Lucky Star and Sam McKeever. She won but was disquelified for foul. Her next start was at Harlem, June 12, and at a mile which was run in 1:40%. She cleverly disposed of Gold Fox, Serrano, Galathee and other g

Yesterday the talent thought the Queen giving away too much weight and took liberties her. In the opening betting she quoted at 3 to 1. This price was cut to 13 to 5

McCann, who has ridden the filly in most of her races, had the mount and handled her to perfection. The boy waited on Guess Me the first half mile and then went on about his business. On the far turn Queen of Song opened up a gap of two lengths and held that advantage to the stretch; Here Gold Fox moved up like a flash and at the eighth post appeared to have the filly beaten. He was going easy and the Queen was driving. At this point it was "write your own ticket" on the Queen against the Fox, but below the sixteenth post the latter faltered and the Queen, coming on game and true, passed him twenty yards out and won handsomely by three parts of a length

Opaque, who has beaten everything he has one against since his arrival, at last met his Waterloo. He was in the third race, a three quarter dash, and against a lot of speed, but as ne had won all his other races so easily it looked on paper that this one was at his mercy looked on paper that this one was also. He was heavily played at about even money and his backers thought they were getting a royal price for their money. The big sprinter had all of his speed but Beauchamp used him up in the first helf and when challenged in the stretch he had nothing left to finish with Opaque carried top weight, 115 pounds, but notwithstanding this Beauchamp rushed him away from the post and sent him along the first quarter in 23% seconds through the mud.. This was enough to stop any horse and goes to show how easy it is for a bad ride to beat a good racehorse. During this time Seaton, on Boney Boy, was riding with good judgment, and at the proper time made his move. When the stretch was reached and Opaque and Goebel, who had raced with him all the way, were ready to lie down, Boney Boy was fresh and bade them good day and won an easy race for himself. Opaque, driving and staggering, finished fifth. What er Lon, under an easy ride, was running over horses in the stretch and finished a bang-up fourth. This horse is good now and should win

Ont of the first race came a close and excit ing finish. Moch, ridden by Rutter, beat Sir Hobart by a nose at the wire. Moch was a 12 to 1 chance. Isen, the favorite, finished third.

The second race was an easy thing for Hood's Brigade, who is a mud runner of high degree. He got away none too well, but worked his way to the front in the first half mile and had only to canter the last furlong.

Prince Blazes at the false price of 12 to 1 easily captured the fourth event, and Molo, backed from 6 to 1 down to 3 to 1, had little or no trouble in winning the closing seven furlong

The day was cloudy and cool, the track heav, nd the attendance was below the average.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Of the recent work of Suburban candidates a special to yesterday's Enquirer says:

"The star work of the day came when Filigrane was sent down the line to the tune of a mile and a quarter in 2:09%. The work was in preparation for his effort in the Suburban, and he answered the question as easily as if he had been going at a two-minute gate. Fractionally taken the time was: Furlong, 13; quarter, :26; three furlongs, 39t; half, :52t; six furlongs, 1:18t; seven furlongs, 1:31t; mile, 1:43t; mile and a furlong, 1:564; mile and a quarter, 2:091.

"St. Cloud was asked a mile in 1:464, and the fractions were as follows: Quarter, 27; four furlongs, 53; five furlongs, 1:05%; six furlongs, 1:18; mile, 1:46t, The big fellow had a lot of d in the first part of it, but it will be so by dissecting the time that he tailed off a bit at the finish. The three-year-old Uriel did the six furlong distance in 1:15%. This racer was newhat of a disappointment in England, but ne looks in splendid shape now, and is more than likely to fulfill his early premise of being a rare good one.

"George Keene, in the absence of Tillo, which it is probable will not be got ready in time, will dcubtless be the representative in the Suburban. He was sent the distance of the race, a mile and a quarter, in 2:10%. The fractions the trip were: Half, :50; six furlongs, 1:161; seven furlongs, 1:30; mile, 1:42½; mile and a furlong, 1:56½; mile and a quarter, 2:10½. The pace was uneven throughout, and the race emed to do his work in spots.

"Warrenton is a better horse today than at any period since he came into William Oliver's ownership, and, as in his work this morning he showed all his speed, there is no reason why he should not have a royal chance for the Suburban next Saturday. Oliver has not yet obtained a jockey, but is hopeful of getd'Oro will not start, and, indeed, it will not be surprising to see the big horse laid up until the Brighton meeting. This is a bit of bad fortune for the Boden stable, which everybody regrets. mare in America, Briar Sweet, had a half mile sprint and a good gallop this morning. She is fit as hands can make her, but the weight, 121 pounds, looks a little more than her capacity. She worked yesterday morning inside of 2:10. Banastar is at his best, and today after the first race at Gravesend he turned a mile and a quarter good and strong in 2:10.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: of the most prominent candidates for the Sensation Stakes, to be run Saturday, were given their final work-out for that event yesterday. Baker & Gentry's colt, Lieutenant Gibson, went the distance (six furlongs) in the very fast time of 1:14—remarkable work. Tom McDowell's crack, His Excellency, also worked six furlongs and did the distance in 1:15t.

Jockey Jesse Everett has decided to remain in Covington until the close of the Latonia meeting, when he will come to Chicago with Hiram Pierce. Mr. Pierce has about decided to bring the Buschmeyer pair, Elizabeth Klein and Phallas here to race for a few weeks, after which he will go to Saratoga with them.

John Porter, the English trainer, has tried three of Carbine's two-year-olds with a four year-old son of St. Simon. The Carbines greatly pleased the proprietor of Kingschere and he advised the Duke of Portland that the youngster from Galatea would probably develop into a "high class" racehorse.

Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Ben Hadad is very good. He ran a fine race and rew away easily at the end. Lambent is consistent. She handled the weight well and ran well. unperator forgot to sulk or quit today. Bardella is improving and will soon do. St. Clair broke ell but was cutrun all the way. Sweet Caporal had no chance with the first three. She is good. iss Rowens is not herself. Decide got the worst of the break and could never catch the leaders. e is in good form.

Off at first break to a fair start. Won handily. Survivor was much used early and had to be hustled a bit at the end. Entered for $800 he was bid up to $3.500, but retained. Hard Knot ran a good, game race under a weak ride. He is a rater and stayer. Tyr Sheua, with an even break, would have given the winner an argument. Those behind the first three are not of much

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Maribert drew away with pounds in hand. He was lucky at the start and showed great speed. Modrine was outrun. He should not have been second but O'Connor could not bandle Missionary. The latter is a tremendously big colt and cannot negotiate the turns. He needs strong handling and will probably prove to be the best of this lot on a straight course. Withers closed some ground at the end but he lacks speed. Meekin about ran his race. He is not first-class. Bramble Rose ran well and is not yet at his best. Petruchio evidently will not do. There were no excuses for him today.

Winner—Ch. c, by Fa's sttc—Cambric.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce; the next four were driving as hard. Moch was lucky and well ridden. Rutter got the celt away well on his stride and picked the best going. He also rome a powerful finish at the end. With the same racing luck and he under the driving well on his stride and picked the best going. He also rome a powerful finish at the end. With the same racing luck and he under the driving well on his stride and picked the best going. He also rome a powerful finish at the end. With the same racing luck and he under the driving word. He was slow in getting away and was bedly interfered with to the first turn. After that Vitatos made up his ground too rapidly. Winslow ran a goor race He made a strong bid and looked very dangerous at the head of the stretch. The ride on Tappan was a joke. Ramona is of no account. Papa Harry was badly interfered with down the backets teh.

Winner—B. c, by Bernes—Remnant.
Post 4 minutes Start straggling Won easily: second cleverly; third eased up. Hood's Brigade was the best. He found the going to his liking and despite a bad break was never fully extended. Holden whipped the colt away from the post, but was obliged to do this in order to get a good positien. Prestome showed a lot of speed and rau a fairly good race. Pautland will so better on dry going. Bloss said he had no chance to win and did not punish the colt through the stretch. Lard Wer raid not show much speed. He is reported to have worked very fast, but does not race that way.

Overweights—Lady Mother, 2 pounds.

Poet 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after a mild drive. The next four were doing their bast. Boney Boy was handled oifferently from the way he was in his last race. Seaton was wide awake and attended strictly to his business. The gelding came from behind when called on He runs beat that way. Tony Licalzi, in close to the rail where the going was the deepest, finished very strong. Mark this borse when he is in where he belongs. He is ready. Considering that Goebel raced out in front at a terrific pace with Opaque he hung on well at the end and is a good borse now. What er Lou could not get out of his own way in the first half but finished with great speed. He is ready for any company from now on. The early pace tired Opaque and he stopped to a walk through the stretch.

Winner—Br. f, by Esher—Sonata.

Off at first break to a good start. Won with something left at the end after a hard drive; second driving and out to the last ounce; third eased at the finish Queen of Song ran a grand race. She was well handled. This filly is very stout hearted, At the eighth post Gold Fox was saddle skirts in front of her and seemed to have her beaten. She came on again very gamely under punishment and won handsomely. Gold Fox may have been abit short. He had no excusse, but simply gave it up in the last twenty yards. Pat Garrett ran a good race. He was not all out at the finish. Guess Me had planty of speed, but could not carry it far. She must have a pesteboard track to do her best. Harry Nutter hardly ran his race. The Winner was badly ridden. Gold Fox wore bar plates.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pardee—Ou st-p second, third and fourth were under full sail. Molo was in going made to order for him and ran a good race. He has a habit of bearing in and alm st committed a foul at the head of the stretch. Graziell is an honest filly. She handled her weight and ran a game race She wore bar plates. Benamela, off poorly, made up a lot of ground. Warren Point got into a jam on the stretch turn and had to pull up. Flop quit in the stretch. It was a bid acting lot at the post and gave the starter a lot of trouble.
